Aims and Outcomes

Aims	This module aims to enable students to investigate an idea at the forefront of the student's own practice, using and building upon the theoretical knowledge and research skills developed in Research Project 1 and Research Project 2 modules. Students will carry out research, including practice-based research where appropriate, in an area that is useful and relevant to their own practice and career aspirations, synthesising and evaluating information, ideas and concepts from a wide range of sources. They will develop their research and writing skills to a high level.
