Learning Outcomes

After completing the module the student should be able to:

Code	Description
MLO1	Demonstrate an understanding of the key external, contextual forces and how they shape the practice and evolution of specific sectors within individual performing arts disciplines.
MLO2	Apply critical analysis, writing skills and appropriate academic conventions in communicating research outcomes.

Module Content

Outline Syllabus

The module will provide a framework for the understanding of the historical relationship between design and technology and the performing arts and help to develop critical and analytical skills, extending both range of reference and vocabulary. All lectures will be designed to encourage dialogue and will give the students a general background in the development of the performing arts, enabling the further study of areas of specific interest. It will deepen their appreciation of major theatrical styles and forms and art movements within the wider arts culture, allowing them to discuss ideas and concepts with a deeper understanding and sympathy.

Module Overview

Throughout the module you will be encouraged to develop deep learning through participation in debates and seminar discussion, extending your cultural reference points and developing vocational critical analytical skills.
